PREFACE

Surprises, the Pre-primer of the Young Canada Reading Series, is designed to make the child's introduction to reading enjoyable and successful.

The lively story content is based upon experiences common to Canadian children. Whimsy and fantasy are introduced in make-believe stories and familiar rhymes. An early appreciation of poetry is encouraged by this book.

This Pre-primer develops a basic sight vocabulary upon which reading skills are built. Test material appears on the "Can You Read?" pages at the end of each of the three units. Some material outside the controlled vocabulary is included for enriching the reading program.

Kittens in my toy-box,

Purring when they're happy,
Mewing to be fed,
Climbing up to see me
In my cozy little bed!

ENRICHMENT

and Bears

Teddy Bear's Party

My Teddy had a party
And all his friends were there,
A panda in a funny hat,
A dancing circus bear,
A brown bear with a shaggy coat,
And one all dressed in white.
They romped and played together.
It was a funny sight!

ENRICHMENT

“I see something funny.
I see the funny pets.”

"Look here, Mother," said Jack.

"See the kitten.

See the funny bear."

"I see Sandy, too," said Mother.

Three Little Kittens

Three little kittens lost their mittens,
And they began to cry,

“O mother dear,
We very much fear
That we have lost our mittens.”

“Lost your mittens!
You naughty kittens!
Then you shall have no pie.”

“Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow.”

“No, you shall have no pie.”

“Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow.”

ENRICHMENT

The three little kittens found their mittens,
And they began to cry,

“O mother dear,
See here, see here!
See! we have found our mittens.”

“Put on your mittens,
You silly kittens,
And you may have some pie.”

“Purr-r, purr-r, purr-r,
O let us have the pie.
Purr-r, purr-r, purr-r.”

The three little kittens put on their mittens,
And soon ate up the pie.

“I can see
You have a big surprise
For me.”

“The surprise is yellow,
Brown, and red.
The surprise is
A funny little bed.”

“Thank you, Bunny,”
Said the little grey mouse.
“Come and help me
Look for a house.”

ACT 2

“I can look for a house,”
The big bear said,
“A house for a mouse
With a new little bed.”

“Yes,” said Bunny.
“I can help, too.
I can look for a house
For you.”

“Here is a house,”
The big bear said,
“A house for a mouse
With a new little bed.”
“Oh, no,” said the mouse.
“The box, you see,
Is too, too little
For the bed and me.”

“Here is a new house,
Yellow and funny.
Here is a house for you,”
Said Bunny.

“No, no, Bunny,”
The little mouse said.
“Too big, too big,
For me and the bed!”

“Here is a house,”
The big bear said,
“A house for a mouse
With a new little bed.”
“No,” said the mouse.
“No dish for me!
A dish is a house
For a fish, you see.”

“Here is a house
For a mouse with a bed.”

“Yes, yes, yes!”
The little mouse said.

“Thank you, Bunny,
And big bear, too.
The house is funny
And green and new.”

Said the bear,
“May I come in and play?”
“Yes,” said the little grey mouse.
“You may.”

Said the bunny,
“May I come in with you?”
“Yes,” said the little mouse,
“You come, too.”

"Here is a house,
A house for three,
The big brown bear,
the bunny,
and me!"
